CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER # 2

By contemporaneously entered order, the Court has approved and entered the parties' proposed joint initial case management order, with modifications addressed at the initial case management conference held on May 22, 2014. Those modifications and other matters addressed on May 22, 2014, are as follows:

1. Because of the nature of the case, the parties agree that it is not necessary to serve initial disclosures in accord with Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

2. Because of the nature of the case, the parties are exempted from the provisions of Administrative Order No. 174, entitled "Default Standard for Discovery of Electronically Stored Information ('E-Discovery')," entered July 9, 2007.

3. Any motions to amend the pleadings shall be filed by August 29, 2014.

4. All written discovery shall be propounded by September 22, 2014.

5. The parties will not use any experts, and there is no provision for expert disclosure or discovery.

6. The parties have been in settlement discussions and they expect to know within the next 2-3 weeks whether or not they will be able to reach a resolution in this case. If not, defendant's counsel advised that the defendant intends to file a motion for summary judgment shortly thereafter.

7. Any dispositive motion shall be filed no later than December 22, 2014. Any response shall be filed within 30 days of the filing of the motion or by January 21, 2015, if the motion is filed on December 22, 2014. Any reply, if necessary, shall be filed within 14 days of the filing of the response or by February 4, 2015, if the response is filed on January 21, 2015.

No other filings in support of or in opposition to any dispositive motion shall be made after February 5, 2015, except with the express permission of the Honorable John T. Nixon.

There shall be no stay of discovery before the November 22, 2014, deadline for completion of all discovery even if a dispositive motion is filed prior thereto.

In consultation with Judge Nixon's office, a jury trial is scheduled to begin on Tuesday, May 5, 2015, at 9:00 a.m., in Courtroom 774, U.S. Courthouse, 801 Broadway, Nashville, TN. The parties anticipate that the trial will last 1-2 days.

The parties are directed to contact Ms. Mary Conner, Courtroom Deputy to Judge Nixon, by no later than 12:00 noon on Friday, May 1, 2015, if this case has settled. Failure to provide such notification in the event the parties have settled the case may result in assessment of costs against the parties and/or their attorneys, including but not limited to the costs of summoning the jurors.

A pretrial conference is also scheduled before Judge Nixon on Friday, April 24, 2015, at 10:00 a.m., in Chambers, 770 U.S. Courthouse.

By March 27, 2015, counsel shall advise opposing counsel of those portions of any depositions to be read to the jury or those portions of video depositions to be viewed by the jury, in accord with Local Rule 32.01(b) and Rule 26(a)(3)(A)(ii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall serve a list of the expected witnesses and exhibits in accord with Rule 26(a)(3)(A)(i) and (iii) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

By April 6, 2015, the parties shall file any motions in limine, any evidentiary objections to deposition testimony, in accord with Local Rules 32.01(b) and 39.01(d)(1) and Rule 26(a)(3)(B), and any objections to proposed exhibits in accord with Rule 26(a)(3)(B).¹

¹ The parties will not use experts in this case so no provision is included for filing Daubert motions.

Any responses to such motions in limine, and any responses to objections to deposition testimony and proposed exhibits shall be filed by April 17, 2015.

By April 17, 2015, the parties shall also:

1. File a proposed joint pretrial order, which shall include:
 - (a) a recitation that the pleadings are amended to conform to the pretrial order and that the pretrial order supplants the pleadings;
 - (b) a short summary of the plaintiff's theory (no more than one page);
 - (c) a short summary of the defendant's theory (no more than one page);
 - (d) a succinct statement of the relief sought;
 - (e) a statement of the issues, including a designation of which issues are for the jury and which issues are for the Court;
 - (f) Any special trial procedural issues;
 - (g) A summary of any anticipated evidentiary issues;
 - (h) A statement that counsel have complied with Rule 26(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure; and
 - (i) The estimated length of the trial.
2. File pretrial briefs, including:
 - (a) a concise statement of the facts;
 - (b) a concise statement of the issues;
 - (c) a statement of the propositions of law upon which counsel relies, together with citations of authorities in support thereof;
 - (d) those evidentiary rulings counsel anticipates may arise and the legal authorities upon which counsel relies in support of his contentions; and
 - (e) what damages are recoverable and, where applicable, a proposed method of reducing future damages to present value.

3. File any deposition transcripts that the parties expect to use at trial;
4. Serve and file their respective final lists of witnesses and exhibits;
5. File a listing of all agreed stipulations;² and
6. File proposed jury instructions, any special interrogatories, and any special verdict forms.³

The parties shall premark all exhibits and comply with Local Rule 39.01(c)(4).

It is so ORDERED.

JULIET GRIFFIN
United States Magistrate Judge

² Counsel shall attempt to good faith to stipulate to the authenticity of exhibits, and shall stipulate to any matters as to which there is no genuine issue or to which counsel does not intend to object. Objections to authenticity of exhibits and any proposed stipulation to which another party objects will be addressed at the pretrial conference. Objections as to admissibility and relevancy may be reserved until the time of trial or addressed in the context of motions in limine.

³ Counsel shall confer and jointly prepare and file a set of agreed, proposed instructions and verdict forms. Each proposed jury instruction shall begin on a new page and shall include citations to supporting authorities. The parties may separately file any disputed jury instructions or verdict forms.
